

Native Trees of Georgia Fall Color Supplement*

These are generally considered the fall colors during peak season. Habitat, weather, genetics, and other components can give variations to the general. Nature determines fall color, not exact science.

Common Name	Fall Leaf Color	Common Name	Fall Leaf Color
Ash, Green	yellow	Oak, Black	burgundy red
Ash, White	yellow	Oak, Blackjack	burgundy red
Baldcypress	gold-brown	Oak, Bluejack	yellow-red
Basswood, White	yellow-red	Oak, Chestnut	yellow
Beech, American	yellow	Oak, Georgia	yellow
Birch, River	yellow	Oak, Laurel	yellow
Birch, Sweet	yellow	Oak, Northern Red	burgundy red
Boxelder	yellow, sometimes red	Oak, Overcup	yellow
Buckeye, Painted	yellow	Oak, Post	yellow
Butternut	yellow	Oak, Scarlet	burgundy red
Catalpa, Southern	yellow	Oak, Shumard	burgundy red
Cherry, Black	yellow-red	Oak, Southern Red	burgundy red
Chestnut, American	yellow	Oak, Swamp Chestnut	burgundy red
Chinkapin, Allegheny	yellow	Oak, Turkey	burgundy red
Cottonwood, Eastern	yellow	Oak, Water	yellow; may hold green
Cottonwood, Swamp	yellow	Oak, White	burgundy red
Cucumbertree	yellow	Oak, Willow	yellow
Dogwood, Flowering	red-purple	Persimmon	yellow; some reddish purple
Elm, American	yellow	Redbud, Eastern	yellow
Elm, Slippery	yellow	Sassafras	orange-red-yellow
Elm, Winged	yellow	Serviceberry, Downy	yellow
Hackberry, Georgia	yellow	Silverbell, Carolina	yellow
Hawthorn species	many species; all colors represented	Sourwood	burgundy red
Hickory, Bitternut	yellow	Sugarberry	yellow
Hickory, Carolina	yellow	Sweetbay	yellow; may hold green
Hickory, Mockernut	yellow	Sweetgum	yellow-red-orange-purple
Hickory, Pignut	yellow	Sycamore, American	yellow
Hickory, Red	yellow	Tupelo, Black	bright red, orange
Hickory, Sand	yellow	Tupelo, Swamp	orange-red
Hickory, Shagbark	yellow	Tupelo, Water	yellow
Hickory, Shellbark	yellow	Walnut, Black	yellow
Honeylocust	yellow	Willow, Black	yellow
Hophornbeam, Eastern	yellow	Yellow-Poplar	yellow
Hornbeam, American	yellow	Cedar, Red	evergreen
Locust, Black	yellow	Cedar, White	evergreen
Magnolia, Fraser	yellow	Dahoon	evergreen
Magnolia, Umbrella	yellow	Hemlock, Eastern	evergreen
Maple, Chalk	yellow	Holly, American	evergreen
Maple, Florida	yellow	Magnolia, Southern	evergreen
Maple, Red	red-purple-yellow	Oak, Live	evergreen
Mulberry, Red	yellow	Pine species	evergreen
		Yaupon	evergreen

* Sincere thanks to Ken Masten, Georgia Forestry Commission, and Bill Lott, University of Georgia, for their assistance and expertise in compiling this fall color supplement to the Native Trees of Georgia.